The Royal Automobile Club of Australia

Make the most important day of your life truly memorable by choosing the Royal Automobile Club of Australia as your wedding venue.

With one of Sydney Harbour's best locations, this heritage listed building is situated adjacent to Circular Quay and provides magical views of the Sydney Harbour Bridge and Royal Botanic Gardens. This makes it an ideal venue for your perfect Sydney Harbourside Wedding.

We pride ourselves in being able to tailor a wedding to your exact requirements. The Club will match facilities and a menu to suit you and your guests and to help make your wedding a unique and exquisite occasion.

From the moment you choose the RACA we will provide you with full support in the organization and coordination of your wedding. Our dedicated wedding coordinator will meet with you and assist you every step of the way to ensure a smooth and stress free planning process leaving you more time to relax and enjoy your special day.

All packages include the services of your own, dedicated wedding coordinator.

Your wedding coordinator will:

Design a floor plan to suit your requirements

Design a schedule of events to suit your requirements

Provide consultancy in person and via email/telephone

Put you in touch with recommended wedding professionals

Ensure placement of bonbonnières and place cards

Oversee the set-up of floral arrangements and decorations

Liaise with the DJ over song choices and musician placement if applicable

Create a seating plan for your guests upon arrival

Design and place personalized menus

Liaise with suppliers, and ensure prompt delivery and setup times

FAQ'S

Is there parking available at the Club?

The RACA offers a valet parking service for up to 40 cars. This is subject to availability and Member parking; please book any spaces you or your guests may require in advance. The non-Members fixed evening rate (in after 5:00pm – out by midnight) is $28.00.

Can I have a dance floor?

The Macquarie Room has a parquetry dance floor built in to the room and we also have a portable 5x5 parquetry dance floor, this can be placed at your choice of location in the Victoria Room.

This is provided at no extra cost.

What beverages are on offer?

The wines we offer in our Classic and Premium packages are made for the Club by Tyrrell's and McLaren Vale.

Should you require spirits to be available, these may be purchased by guests during the reception at a cash bar or charged on consumption.

Can my family and friends book accommodation at the Club?

There are 29 rooms available at the Club, and your guests are certainly able to book accommodation subject to availability and Member bookings. A standard queen room for non-Members is $245.00 (including continental breakfast).

Can I provide my own band/DJ/entertainment?

We include a DJ in all of our packages, however if you would like to provide your own entertainment we are happy to deduct $350.00 from the final cost of your wedding.

Can I use my own florist?

We include floral centerpieces in all of our Packages, however if you would like to provide your own centerpieces we are happy to deduct $4.00 per guest.

Are there any additional charges on top of the packages?

There are no additional or surprise charges on top of any of our packages. The cost per guest remains fixed unless additional options are requested, or the DJ and centerpieces are not needed.

What time can I have my reception from?

Wedding receptions can commence from 5:30pm, and will end accordingly based on your chosen package.

All RACA functions must conclude at midnight.

Do I have to make an appointment to view the club?

If you would like to view our beautiful club then please make an appointment with our dedicated Wedding Coordinator, Toni Byrnes, who can be contacted on 02 8273 2322 or weddings@raca.com.au.

Is there a dress code?

The RACA requests that no shorts, thongs and ripped or stained jeans to be worn within the Club.

How do I tentatively hold a date?

All you have to do is contact our Wedding Coordinator for availability and request a tentative hold at no additional cost. Tentative holds will be released after two weeks if no contract and deposit have been received.

How can I confirm and pay for my Wedding Reception?

Upon confirming your Reception at the RACA, you will be required to complete a booking confirmation form signed by both the bride and groom. A deposit of $2500.00 is also required which can be paid via cheque, credit card (please note that surcharges apply) or by online transaction. Once this has been received we can begin planning your special day!
