Tasting Notes:

The colour is a very deep crimson with purple hues. The nose expresses lifted, sweet, Satsuma plum, raspberry and peach aromas dominate with hints of biscuity French oak. The palate - a lovely sweet fruit gives a full, rich mouthfeel and is balanced with Briary spice and fine dry tannins. The combination brings about a luscious, fruit driven wine with an extremely long finish.

Food:

Try with Ragu, BBQ sausages and steak, pizza or matured cheddar cheese.

Cellaring:

Drinking wonderfully well now, but will continue to develop for the next 3-4 years given correct cellaring.
