Make the most of Australia Day, Sunday 26 January 2020

What’s happening?

During the day 10.00am to 4.00pm Central Sydney Harbour will come alive this Australia Day as large crowds gather around Circular Quay, Dawes Point, The Rocks and other vantage points to watch the festivities on and above the water:

9.00am–6.00pm Sydney Street Party, The Rocks
10.00am–4.00pm Chill Out Zone at the OPT
10.45am–11.30am Ferrython
11.30am–12.05pm Salute to Australia
12.00pm–2.00pm In the Sky
12.05pm–12.15pm Tug and Yacht Ballet
12.30pm–6.00pm Warrane Stage, The Rocks
12.45pm–2.00pm Harbour Parade
1.00pm–1.30pm Tall Ships Race
2.00pm–4.00pm Tall Ships Festival

At night 6.30pm until late The party continues at Circular Quay with Australia Day Live, where Australia’s biggest music stars rock out at the Sydney Opera House Forecourt as everything else hits the water, including a flotilla of yachts, jet skis and flyboarders, with spectacular fireworks exploding throughout the show. More than 65,000 people will enjoy a dynamic 360-degree event experience making every vantage point ideal to enjoy the show.
Road Closures

It is important that crowds attending Australia Day events enjoy the celebrations in a safe environment. To do so, crowd management infrastructure and road closures on 26 January 2020 will be in place as follows:

- event sites along east and west Circular Quay will have managed access and security checks in place, and crowd numbers will be closely monitored to prevent overcrowding
- The Rocks and Millers Point will be closed from from early morning
- Circular Quay will be closed from 4.00pm until midnight.

Parking restrictions will be in effect throughout the day, with street parking limited.

Please ensure you are aware of the traffic management measures as they may affect your business on Australia Day, as well as your suppliers and patrons.
